St. James's, October 6.

This Day the following Addreſs was preſented to His Majeſty, and read by the Reverend William Langford, A. M. accompanied by a Deputation from the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters, introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's ever faithful and loyal Subjects, the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with our unfeigned Congratulations on the auſpicious Birth of a Prince, and the happy Recovery of the Queen.

So great an Acceſſion to your Majeſty's perſonal and domeſtick Felicity, inſpires us with the warmeſt Joy, and calls for our abundant Thankfulneſs to Divine Providence, which, in thus augmenting your private Happineſs, and that of your moſt amiable Conſort, hath added freſh Security to the publick Welfare; and afforded us the pleaſing Proſpect, that the ineſtimable Bleſſings, which the Nation derives from your Majeſty's wiſe and gracious Government, will be tranſmitted, through your Royal Deſcendants, to the lateſt Generations.

If

If any Thing could add to our Satisfaction on ſo delightful an Occaſion as the Birth of an Heir Apparent to the Imperial Crown of Great Britain, it would be the Conſideration, that his Royal Highneſs was born on a Day which the Proteſtant Diſſenters have always commemorated with the higheſt Pleaſure, and diſtinguiſhed by the moſt ardent Gratitude to Heaven; a Day that introduced your Majeſty's Family to the Throne of theſe Realms, and with it a Period of Happineſs Private and Publick, Civil and Religious, which this Country never before enjoyed, and which, we truſt in God, will, under your Majeſty and your Illuſtrious Succeſſors, be continued and increaſed.

It is our united and fervent Prayer to the King of Kings, that the Life and Health of the Prince of Wales may be preſerved; and that, by the Bleſſing of the Almighty on your Majeſty's Paternal Inſtructions and engaging Example, and the tender Care of the Queen, his Royal Highneſs may grow up to the Poſſeſſion of every amiable and uſeful Accomplishment, ſo as to become, in his Day, the Friend of Religion and Virtue, the Patron of Genius, Learning, and Knowledge, the Guardian of Liberty, the Triumph of Britain, and the Delight of Human Kind. And when you, Great Sir, ſhall have arrived to the Fulneſs of Years, Proſperity, and Glory, then, and not till then, may he ſucceed to the ſame Honours, and reign with equal Dignity, Happineſs, and Renown.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer.

THIS dutiful Addreſs, and your warm Congratulations on an Event, which ſo nearly concerns My private Happineſs, and the Welfare of My Kingdoms, are extremely agreeable to Me. Theſe repeated Proofs of your Zeal for My Perſon, and Government, cannot fail to inſure to you the Continuance of My Protection.

They all had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand; and were admitted to ſee the Prince of Wales.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Common Council of Liverpoole, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Bute, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Common Council of Liverpoole, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Common Council of Liverpoole, in Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to offer up to your Sacred Throne our moſt ſincere Congratulations upon the ſafe Delivery of the Queen, and Birth of his Royal Highneſs the Prince.

As we are fully perſuaded that our Religion, Laws and Liberties abſolutely depend upon your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, this happy Event fills our Hearts with inexpreſſible Joy, by bringing an Addition to your Majeſty's Domeſtick Felicity, and opening to us the pleaſing Proſpect of having theſe ineſtimable Bleſſings tranſmitted by Princes of your Royal Line to lateſt Poſterity.

Long, very long and happy may your Majeſty live to reign over a brave and free People: And may the young Prince, taught by your Majeſty's great Example and Inſtruction to make publick Happineſs the chief Object, ſucceed to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, and inherit all his Father's Virtues.

We pray to the Supreme Governour of all Things, who hath hitherto remarkably bleſſed your Majeſty's Arms by Sea and Land, to continue His Favours, and proſper your Majeſty with ſuch Succeſs, that may compel our Enemies to ſubmit to Terms, on which may be built an honourable, laſting and beneficial Peace.

Paſſed under the Common Seal of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpoole aforeſaid, the Twenty-eighth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-two.

The following Addreſs of the Principal, Profeſſors and Maſters of Mariſchal College and Univerſity of Aberdeen, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Earl of Bute, their Chancellor: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Principal, Profeſſors and Maſters of Mariſchal College and Univerſity of Aberdeen.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Principal, Profeſſors and Maſters of the Mariſchal College and Univerſity of Aberdeen, an Univerſity, which has the Honour to be under your Majeſty's immediate Patronage, eagerly ſeize this auſpicious Occaſion of profeſſing our hearty Attachment to your Royal Perſon, Family and Government; and our Senſe of the great Bleſſings which we enjoy under your gracious Adminiſtration.

We cannot but regard every Acceſſion to your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe as an Addition of Security for all we hold dear as Citizens or Chriſtians. The Birth of a Prince, who will have the Advantage of being formed for Government by your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Example, and early impreſſed with a Concern for the Civil and Religious Intereſts of Britain, and who will, we truſt, inherit the Abilities and Virtues, together with the Crown, of his Anceſtors, and exert them, in due Time, for the Happineſs of this Nation, is an Event ſo important, as cannot fail to raiſe the loudeſt Voice of Joy throughout all your Majeſty's Dominions; eſpecially when it is heightened by the ſpeedy and perfect Recovery of the Royal Mother.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that to our beſt Endeavours to promote Loyalty, Learning and Virtue among the Youth under our Care, we ſhall always join our Thankſgivings to the Almighty, for every Bleſſing which He beſtows on your Majeſty, and your Royal Houſe; and our fervent Prayers, that the beſt of Kings, and our moſt gracious Queen, may very long be happy in each other; that from them may deſcend a numerous Progeny, virtuous and accompliſhed as themſelves; that the Prince of Wales may live to fill with Honour, but very late, his Father's Throne; and that the Deſcendants of our Sovereign may reign to remoteſt Poſterity, in unbroken Succeſſion, the Guardians of Liberty, the Patrons of Learning, the Friends of true Religion, and the Darlings of all their Subjects.

Signed in Name, Preſence, and by Appoinment of the Faculty, at Mariſchal College, the Twenty-ninth Day of September, 1762, by George Campbell, Principal.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility and Gentlemen of the County of Perth, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable James Stewart Mackenzie, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which

Addreſs

Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly:

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility and Gentlemen of the County of Perth, aſſembled at Perth.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Nobility and Gentlemen of the County of Perth, beg Leave, with all Humility, to offer to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Congratulations upon the Birth of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and upon her Majeſty's happy Recovery.

The conſtant and uniform Attention which your Majeſty has ſhewn to the Happineſs of your Subjects, muſt excite, in every grateful Breaſt, the warmeſt Wiſhes for your Majeſty's domeſtick, as well as publick Felicity, and for the Continuance to our Poſterity, of the many valuable Benefits we derive from your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government. In this intereſting Event are both theſe Objects united, and by the Divine Bleſſing upon this Royal Infant, theſe Wiſhes will be accompliſhed.

May an honourable and laſting Peace crown this auſpicious Year. May your Majeſty's Reign be long as it has been glorious, that by your Example, as well as Inſtruction, the Mind of this young Prince may be eſtabliſhed in the juſt Principles of Government. May Her Majeſty enjoy many Years of perfect Health, that Her amiable Qualities may continue to heighten every Comfort, and ſooth every Care of your Royal Breaſt. And may there never be wanting an Heir of your Majeſty's Auguſt Houſe, to govern theſe Kingdoms, with the ſame tender Regard to their Religion, their Liberties, and their Conſtitution, which has ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed the Adminiſtration of your Illuſtrious Progenitors, and which your Majeſty has made the invariable Rule of your own Conduct.

Signed at Perth, this 23d of September, 1762, by the Appointment, and in Preſence of the Meeting, Kinnoull, Præſes.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Approved Men of the Town of Guldeford in the County of Surry, has been preſented to His Majeſty by George Onſlow, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Approved Men of the Town of Guldeford in the County of Surry.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's muſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to join in the general Acclamations of Joy, in approaching your Royal Perſon, and congratulating your Majeſty, and our moſt Gracious Queen your Royal Conſort, on the Birth of a Prince.

As it muſt give your Majeſties the greateſt Happineſs, ſo it is to your Majeſty's Subjects the moſt important Event (next to the Preſervation of your moſt Sacred Life) that can add to the every other Bleſſing they enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government.

After, therefore, returning Thanks to the Divine Providence for this Bleſſing, and for the happy Recovery of Her Majeſty's Health, we moſt devoutly implore the Almighty to grant to the Royal Infant Health and Length of Days; and that under the Paternal Care and Tuition of your Majeſty, and animated by your Royal Example, he may very late aſcend the Imperial Throne of your Majeſty's Dominions, poſſeſſed of every Regal Virtue, which ſo confeſſedly makes your Majeſty the Darling of a Free and Loyal People; and that there never may be wanting a Prince of your Majeſty's moſt Illuſtrious Houſe, to perpetuate theſe Bleſſings to our lateſt Poſterity.

And we alſo moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on this laſt Addition of Glory to your Majeſty's Arms; by the Conqueſt of the Havannah; a moſt important Addition to your Majeſty's Dominions.

Given under the Common Seal of our Corporation, at our Guildhall, this fourth Day of October, 1762.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Officers of Militia, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. Lord Charles Greville Montagu, and the Right Hon. Lord Carysfort, their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Officers of Militia, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace holden at Huntingdon in and for the ſaid County, the Fifth Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-two.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Officers of Militia, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Huntingdon, beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the ſafe Delivery of the Queen, and the Birth of the Prince. When ſo fair a Proſpect of ſtable and laſting Felicity is opened to your Kingdoms, your People cannot but entertain it with the greateſt Joy, at the ſame Time that it fills their Hearts with the moſt awful Adoration of the Divine Providence for this early Pledge of a numerous Off-ſpring deſigned for the Security of theſe Nations. A King of Great Britain will, at all Times, and on all Occaſions, be looked upon as one of the moſt important Protectors of the Civil and Religious Liberties of Mankind. All Europe, therefore, muſt take a very ſenſible Part in an Event that promiſes ſo permanent a Bleſſing on the Proteſtant Cauſe, founded, as it is, on the firmeſt Baſis of Freedom and pure Religion. May your Majeſty and the Queen long enjoy every private and publick Happineſs; and may the Prince of Wales grow up to be the Satisfaction and Delight of your Lives, and fully recompence all your Cares and Anxiety for his and the Nation's future Welfare. The Reduction of the Havannah is ſo cloſely connected with what muſt be the Wiſh of every good Citizen, a Safe and Honourable Peace, that we cannot but deſire to mix ours with the publick Joy, and the Patriot Senſations of your Majeſty's own Heart, upon a Conqueſt ſo truly glorious to the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, and to the Succeſs of your Arms. We therefore muſt humbly intreat your Majeſty's Acceptance of our warmeſt Congratulations on theſe happy Occaſions. May your Majeſty's conſtant Attention for the Peace and Proſperity of your People always meet with the moſt ardent Returns of Loyalty and Affection from them. Whilſt your Majeſty really poſſeſſes the Hearts of your Subjects, may they never be wanting in Honour to your Perſon, and dutiful Submiſſion to your Authority: And may neither their own private Intereſts, nor particular Paſſions, ever diſappoint your Majeſty's Cares for the Publick Service. A mutual Exchange of good Offices between King and People anſwers beſt the Ends of all Government; and no particular Conſtitution more eminently proves this Truth, than that of Great Britain, over which your Majeſty is placed by the united Suffrages of a Free People.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes, of the Borough of Banbury, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Lord North, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes, of the ancient Borough of Banbury, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmeſt and moſt reſpectful Congratulations upon the Birth of the Prince.

We ſee, with Pleaſure, the Certainty of our future National Happineſs confirmed upon the ſame auſpicious Day from whence we date all our preſent publick Felicity. This happy Event has made the only poſſible Addition to your Majeſty's domeſtick Happineſs, and to the Glory and Security of your Kingdoms.

May the Prince grow up in all the Virtues which adorn his Royal Parents: May he be the Support of that Holy Religion, which the Houſes of Brunſwick and Mecklenburg have always maintained: May he be the Guardian of that Liberty, which the Nation has enjoyed under the Princes of your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Family.

May he very late ſucceed your Majeſty in being the Delight of this Country, and the Admiration of Europe.

Given under our Common Seal this Thirtieth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, 1762.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of Canterbury, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Beſt and Richard Mills, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of Canterbury, in Burgmote aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of your City of Canterbury, humbly beſeech your Majeſty to receive our ſincere Congratulations on the Birth of a Prince, and the Recovery of our gracious Queen your moſt amiable Conſort.

So early an Inſtance of the Divine Goodneſs, in promoting your Majeſty's domeſtick Happineſs, diffuſes an univerſal Joy through the Minds of your Subjects; and preſents them with the moſt pleaſing Proſpect, that the Bleſſings they already experience under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, will, by this happy Event, be continued to Poſterity.

It is our Intereſt, as well as Duty, to wiſh, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and glorious; but, when the deſtined Period arrives, that your Royal Son ſhall ſway the Britiſh Sceptre, may he, by imitating your Majeſty's Virtues, have learned to rule a Free and Loyal People, and become for a Series of Years, the Guardian of thoſe Liberties, which the Precepts and Example of his Illuſtrious Father will have taught him to protect and defend.

Dantzig, September 22. In this Country we are at preſent very quiet, the Ruſſians having already diſpoſed of all their Magazines, &c. and being pretty far advanced on their March homewards; ſo that his Pruſſian Majeſty is again in full Poſſeſſion of all his Territories in Pomerania, as well as Poliſh Pruſſia, and already receives from the latter a conſiderable Number of Recruits.

Breſlaw, September 22. It is confidently reported, but we have no Certainty of it, that the Commandant of Schweidnitz is now actually treating, and has offered to ſurrender himſelf and the Garriſon Priſoners of War, with this Condition, That they ſhould not be ſent into Pruſſia, but immediately exchanged againſt an equal Number of Pruſſian Priſoners.

We are informed that Major General Schmettau, who was detached towards Hirſchberg, has taken Poſſeſſion of Zittau and Gorlitz. And ſome Letters received here ſay, that the Auſtrians have occupied Budiſſin.

Head Quarters at Kirchayn, September 30.

September 22. This Morning, at Day-Light, we ſaw that the Enemy had worked hard in Repairing their Redoubt, and had added conſiderably to their Trench of Communication. We had likewiſe wrought all Night to put our Redoubt in a State of Defence, and to make an Intrenchment about 100 Paces in the Rear of it. We had heard the Enemy drawing off their Cannon in the Night, and we ſaw only three Pieces remaining in the Morning, to which we oppoſed the like Number. As there was not a Shot fired on either Side, we both continued the Works that had been begun in the Night, and we traced out a large Redoubt upon a Hill, within Reach of Grape-Shot of the Bridge, as the Enemy died a Battery on their Side. Our advanced Centinels were not ten Yards from each other. We obſerved that all was quiet at Amonebourg, and that our People were on the Walls; upon which the Duke returned to his Quarters now changed to Kirchayn. The Avenue to this Town, on the Enemy's Side, is by a Cauſeway through a Moraſs: A little Rivulet, which runs cloſe by the Town, falls into the Ohme at a ſmall Diſtance from it. A Battery has been made on this Cauſeway to keep the Enemy at a Diſtance; and in the Church-yard, which is the higheſt Part of the Town, we have a heavy Cannon. But as they may throw Shells in here, all our Carriages are ordered to remain out of the Town. From the Church-yard we this Day ſaw the Enemy in the Road leading to the Gate of Amonebourg, and no Oppoſition made from within. Soon after their Centinels appeared on the Walls, which ſhowed us they were Maſters of the Place, but whether by Capitulation, or Surprize, we are not yet informed.

The Enemy's Grand Army having moved to the Right, General Conway was ordered to quit the Heights of Wetter, and to fall back to Thoſe of Melnau. Our Grand Army likewiſe made a Movement, and encamped with the Right at Schonſtadt, and the Left at Staulzenbach. Lord Granby's Reſerve occupied the Ground before Nieder Klein, to be at Hand to defend the Paſſage of the Brugge Muhl; and General Wangenheim remained on the Heights by Danrot, to face the Saxons. Luckner occupied the Gorge of Nieder Aſpe on the Right of General Conway.

By the Returns of this Day, the Number of our Killed and Wounded, in the Affair of Brugge Muhl, do not amount to Eight Hundred. Twelve Officers, and about 150 Men, remained on the Spot.

September 23. Capt. Cruze, who had commanded at Amonebourg, was this Day ſent back with his Garriſon, as Priſoners of War; and he gave ſuch Reaſons for Capitulating, as ſatisfied the Duke. A large Breach had been made in the Wall of the Caſtle, where he was poſted, (the Detachment from the Army being charged with the Defence of the Town) by which an Officer and 50 Men had got into the Court Yard of the Caſtle, and others were following them, when they were ſo much galled by the Fire

Fire of our People, that ſeveral of them were killed there, and the reſt, in endeavouring to get back, were taken Priſoners. This was the briſk Firing we heard the Night of the 21ſt. The Morning of the 22d they made a Shew of ſtorming again with many Batteries; but firſt ſummoned the Place. The Commandant, on ſuch a formidable Apparatus, having no Proviſions, and very little Ammunition, capitulated.

We obſerved, that the greateſt Part of the Enemy's Army was, ſince the Taking of Amonebourg, encamped in the Plain behind it.

September 24. The Enemy made a Feu de Joye for the Taking of Almeida in Portugal.

September 25. The Enemy has made a regular Communication on the other Side of their Redoubt, by which they can come into it by the Hill of Amonebourg under Cover. Our Redoubt by the Gallows was almoſt finiſhed, and others on the Right and Left begun. The Ohme being now fordable in many Places, we have collected all the Harrows we could find in the adjacent Villages, and placed them in the moſt practicable Fords.

September 26. The Duke having Intelligence that the Enemy had detached a Corps towards Alsfeldt, ordered Lord Granby to march in the Evening with 17 Squadrons, a Brigade of Infantry, and ſome heavy Cannon, to attack them. General Wangenheim, whoſe Corps was Part of the Troops that were under Lord Granby's Orders, on this Occaſion, marched with them. Beckwith's Brigade replaced Wangenheim's Infantry on the Heights of Danrot. Some other Momements were made on our Right, but of no Conſequence; one Brigade only taking up the Ground, which another was ordered to leave, for preſerving the Communication.

September 27. The Duke having had Intelligence laſt Night, that the Prince of Condé's Corps was to march to Siegen, his Serene Highneſs ordered General Conway to occupy the Heights of Wetter, and General Gilſae to replace him on thoſe of Melnau. Luckner's Corps was at the ſame Time to march to Watzenbach, to prevent the Enemy coming by the Gorge of Culmbach into General Conway's Rear. The Enemy's Main Army continued in the ſame Poſition they have been in for ſome Time paſt. Their Grand Guards were poſted on the Hills above Wetter, but fell back upon the Approach of our Troops.

September 28. Deſerters, who came in laſt Night, affirm, that it was intended to attack our Left this Morning; and the Story was ſo probable, that the Duke ordered three Battalions from the Right to reinforce our Left, and his Serene Highneſs went at Day-break to Neider-Uffleiden; but finding every Thing quiet, he returned hither, and ordered the three Battalions, which we met on their March, and who had left their Tents ſtanding, to return to their former Poſition.

Three Battalions marched Yeſterday to reinforce Lord Granby.

September 29. Lord Granby returned to his former Poſition, as did the other Troops. His Lordſhip arrived at Romrodt the 26th at Midnight. The 27th he had an Account that the Enemy had puſhed on towards Ziegenhayn, and that they had fallen back to Eyſa in the Evening; upon which he marched to Alsfeldt. They retired in the Night, and he had Orders to return.

They had puſhed a conſiderable Detachment of Cavalry to eſcort Waggons to Ziegenhayn, and thought themſelves ſtrong enough to force Major General Freytag; but he attacked them, and purſued them to Alsfeldt, killing, wounding, and taking 400 Men. It is ſuppoſed that their Intention was to load their Waggons with Meal, of which they have great Quantities at Ziegenhayn; and to endeavour to ſupply the Garriſon of Caſſel, which is ſaid to be in great Diſtreſs. M. de Poyanne commanded this Corps.

September 30. There being Intelligence, that Part of this Corps was ſtill in the Neighbourhood of Erlrickſtein, Major General Alfeldt was detached, at Two this Morning, with two Battalions and eight Squadrons, and ſome Pieces of Cannon from General Wangenheim's Corps, to attack them.

The Enemy having likewiſe occupied Bergemunden, Major General Freytag, whoſe Corps was at Mulbach, ſince his Purſuit of the 27th, was ordered to attack that Poſt this Morning. We attended the Duke to the Heights of Hombourg before Noon, and heard ſome Cannonading in our Way there; but it ceaſed before our Arrival; and an Officer was ſent to inform his Serene Highneſs, that the Enemy was diſlodged, but that a conſiderable Corps was then encamping by Neider-Ohm. We ſaw ſome Cannon-Shot fired not far from Erlrickſtein, which muſt be by General Alfeldt; but the Duke had not a Report from thence at Eight this Morning.

Hague, October 5. Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters were ſtill at Kirchayn on the 1ſt Inſtant. The Army under his Command extends from behind Merlan on the Left, as far as Watzenbach on the Right. The French from Merlan on their Right, to Caldern on their Left.

The two Marſhals had, ſince the Affair of the 21ſt paſt, contented themſelves with making Detachments on the Right and Left of the Allied Army, in order thereby to open again their Communication with Caſſel, and facilitate the Means of throwing Proviſions into the Place, which began to be in very great Diſtreſs for Want of them.

It is confeſſed by their own Accounts, that their Loſs in the Cannonade of the 21ſt, greatly exceeded that of the Allies. And we hear from Francfort, that Eighteen Hundred wounded Men had been ſent to the Hoſpital there, beſides a great many, who not being able to ſupport the Journey thither, were carried to Marbourg, Gieſſen, and other Places nearer at Hand.

We are likewiſe informed, that the Foreign Regiments in the French Service have ſuffered greatly this Campaign by Deſertion and Sickneſs; and their Army in general is repreſented to be in a bad State, and in Want of Proviſions and Forage.
